

Brookline College Opens New Student Therapeutic Massage Center

Grand Opening Special – Purchase a $25 Massage Gift Certificate for Only $10

Oklahoma City – December 7, 2011– Brookline College announces its new Student Therapeutic Massage Center is now open to the public.

The new massage Center is located on the Oklahoma City Campus of Brookline College. Massages are given by students in its Professional Therapeutic Massage Diploma Program.

The Center features three private treatment rooms and is handicap accessible with convenient, on-site parking.

“This new massage center gives Brookline College the opportunity to provide students with experience in a real-world setting and allows us to provide a service to the community at a low cost,” said Terri Lowery, Campus Director for Brookline College’s Oklahoma City Campus.

“The holidays can be stressful, and we want to make it affordable to treat yourself to a massage or give the gift of massage to someone special,” said Lowery.
