

CONSTITUTION AND CITIZENSHIP DAY

Constitution and Citizenship Day

Each year, Brookline College recognizes Constitution Day, commemorating the Sept. 17, 1787 signing of the U.S. Constitution. In 2018, Brookline College observed Constitution Day on Sept. 17. On the observed day, each Campus Director offered various activities in support of celebrating this day. In addition, the following resources are provided to learn more about the U.S. Constitution:

- One of the Library of Congress' repositories for Constitutional documents and information may be accessed at: <http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html>.
- The National Archives also has a Web site with a scan of the U.S. Constitution available online at: <http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/charters/charters.html>.
- In addition, the National Archives has a nationwide network of research facilities, including presidential libraries that welcome students as young as 14 years of age. Information about the facilities (by region and state) can be located online at: <http://www.archives.gov/locations/index.html>.
